

Our Fallen Hero

SGT. Thomas J. Dostie Somerville

SGT Dostie was 20-years-old. He loved outdoor sports such as soccer, fishing, water-skiing and snowmobiling. He was on the wrestling and swimming team at the Erskine Academy. He had just recently graduated from high school and worked as a mechanic. He came from a small town of 500 people where he served as a volunteer firefighter.

Thomas Dostie was promoted to Sergeant posthumously and was awarded the Army Good Conduct Medal, Bronze Star, and the Purple Heart. He was buried on December 31, 2004 at Sand Hill Cemetary in Somerville, Maine.
