

Our Fallen Hero

SSG Scott C. Rose Readfield

SSG Rose, age 30, was deployed to Iraq from Fort Campbell, KY with his unit,- Bravo Company, 5th Battalion, 101st Airborne Division. He was a crewchief on a Blackhawk helicopter flying over Tikrit, Iraq when it was shot down on November 7th, 2003.

Scott was an Army brat, traveling the world with his family depending on where his Dad was stationed. He graduated from high school in Livorno, Italy and attended North Carolina State University. He enlisted in the Army in April 1997, attending basic training at Fort Jackson, SC and AIT at Fort Eustis, VA. Scott was then stationed at Fort Campbell, KY. He did a tour in Bosnia (2000-2001) and was on his first deployment to Iraq when he was killed. He left behind a beautiful daughter.