

Our Fallen Hero

IMO Staff Sergeant Eric Shaw Exeter

Staff Sergeant Eric Shaw, age 31, of Exeter, Maine was killed in action on Sunday, June 27, 2010 in Afghanistan. He was a Soldier in the 101st Airborne Division of the United States Army stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Shaw was raised in Exeter, Maine. He graduated from Dexter Regional High School in 1999 and was a 2003 graduate of the University of Southern Maine in Gorham where he earned a bachelor's degree in history and education. His hobbies were wrestling and history. While in college he was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. One of his long-time ambitions was to become a history teacher. He leaves behind a wife and three children - ages five, two and one month.