

Our Fallen Hero

SPC. Wade A. Slack Waterville

Specialist Wade A. Slack, age 21, a native of Waterville, Maine was killed in action on Thursday, May 6, 2010 in Jaghatu, Wardak Province, Afghanistan. He was a Soldier in the 707th Ordnance Company (Explosive Ordnance Disposal) of the United States Army.

Wade was a graduate of Waterville High School where he attended from 2003 to 2007. He worked on and off as a cook at a restaurant called The Last Unicorn from 2005 to 2007. Among his interests were family, friends, video games, movies, and shooting.

SPC Slack enlisted in the Army on September 2006 while a senior in high school. After graduation he reported to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. for basic training in July 2007.

He worked in the EOD field and specialized in defusing explosives. His awards and decorations include the National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon and Explosive Ordnance Disposal Badge